Notes:

- 'Show All Messages' is the default unless specified by the site administrator.
- The 'Allow site participants to change the chat display settings for their own chat window' is checked by default. If the site administrator deselects this check box, the display setting for chat room participants will be restricted to the option chosen by the site administrator. No other options will display in the drop-down.
- The default for 'Show the last X messages' is set to 10.
- The default for 'Show messages from the past X days' is set to 3.
- Currently, if the site administrator changes the number for 'Show the last X messages', then the number for 'Show messages from the past X days' changes as well. This behavior is incorrect. If the site administrator changes the number for 'Show the last X messages', then the number for 'Show messages from the past X days' will not change.
- Currently, if the site administrator chooses 'Show no message history', the number for 'Show the last X messages' and 'Show messages from the past X days' changes to zero. This behavior is incorrect. If the site administrator chooses 'Show no message history' then 'Show the last X messages' and 'Show messages from the past X days' will remain the same and will not be zeroed out.
- Each option will be available in the drop down menu if the check box next to 'Allow site participants to change the chat display settings for their own chat window' is selected.

- The options in the drop down menu will be:

All messages
Last X messages
Past X days
No messages

They will appear in the order specified above.

- If the check box next to 'Allow site participants to change the chat display settings for their own chat window' is not checked, then the only option that will display in the drop down is the option chosen by the site administrator.
